Foreword
By the FEI President

It's a great pleasure to welcome you to CS Ranch in Givrins, Switzerland for the FEI European Reining Championships for Juniors and Young Riders 2015. This state-of-the-art breeding, training and competition facility, which boasts spectacular views of Mont Blanc and Lake Geneva, has been attracting all the leading European Reining stars for some years now and plays host to these Championships for the second year in succession.

Since Reining first became an FEI discipline in 2000 it has widened its appeal across the globe, with a huge following of competitors and fans now well-established in Europe. It is no surprise that, with its origins in the training of working cattle horses in the USA, Americans have dominated the World Championships podiums ever since. However I'm delighted to point out that it was the Belgian team that secured silver at last summer's Alltech FEI World Equestrian GamesTM 2014 in Normandy where Austria took team bronze. The increasing level of expertise amongst the European contenders continues to draw them ever-closer to their American counterparts.

At last year's FEI European Reining Championships for Juniors and Young Riders it was all-gold for Italy, and Eric Ranieri Volpe and Giovanni Masi de Vargas made a big impression when securing the individual titles. It was also great to see that, despite the tendency to link Reining with the legend of the cowboy from the Wild West, the ladies were also well-represented on the podium. Austria's Marina Bottoli and Whizable took Young Rider individual bronze and Germany's Gina Maria Schumacher did likewise with Big Time Rooster in the Juniors. The commitment to gender equality in equestrian sport is absolute, and we take pride in that.

This year we have competitors from nine nations - Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy, The Netherlands and Switzerland - battling for Championship medals at the event which will also feature a full NRHA fixture. I urge you all to thoroughly enjoy taking part, to give of your best, and to compete with a sporting spirit. And I also urge you to take care of the health and welfare of your most precious asset - your horse.

On behalf of the Fédération Equestre Internationale, I send my best wishes to the athletes, organisers, sponsors, officials, supporters, volunteers and spectators for a truly memorable and enjoyable event.

Schweizer Vermögensberatung unterstützt die CS Classic

Liebe Gäste

Als Tochterunternehmen des renommierten Finanzvertriebes Deutsche Vermögensberatung handeln wir ganz nach der Devise „Vermögensaufbau für jeden“. Im Mittelpunkt stehen die Ziele, Wünsche und der persönliche Bedarf unserer Kunden. Aber auch für Menschen und Aktivitäten in der Schweiz machen wir uns stark. So sind wir ganz besonders stolz darauf, treuer Sponsor der CS Classic auf der Ranch von Corinna Schumacher zu sein. Diese Partnerschaft entstand aus der freundschaftlichen Verbindung zwischen der Familie von Prof. Dr. Reinfried Pohl, dem Gründer der Deutschen und der Schweizer Vermögensberatung, und dem Ehepaar Schumacher. Und sie hat bereits Tradition: Seit 1996 sponsert die DVAG den siebenfachen Formel-1-Weltmeister Michael Schumacher, der mit seinem Ehrgeiz und Teamgeist für den Konzern und seine 37.000 haupt- und nebenberuflichen Vermögensberater eine wichtige Vorbildfunktion hat.

Corinna Schumacher ist mit ihrer CS Ranch ebenfalls ein hervorragendes Beispiel für Kompetenz, Engagement und Menschlichkeit. Werte, mit denen auch wir als Schweizer Vermögensberatung überzeugen und die wir in unser mehrstufiges Ausbildungskonzept für Vermögensberater spürbar einfließen lassen. Damit legen wir den Grundstein für eine erfolgreiche Berufskarriere und eine anhaltende Kundenzufriedenheit. Unser Herzstück: die umfassende Allfinanzberatung. Das Konzept der Allfinanzberatung berücksichtigt branchenübergreifend alle finanziellen Belange des Kunden. Als Partner kommen nur erstklassige Produktanbieter in Frage. So bieten wir unseren Kunden nicht nur effiziente Finanzlösungen für heute, sondern auch erstklassige Optionen für die Zukunft an, ganz nach dem Motto „Vermögen planen – Vermögen sichern – Vermögen mehren“.

Outre le conseil aux personnes en Suisse, Conseil en Patrimoine Suisse s'investit également dans des activités sur le territoire national. Ainsi, nous sommes particulièrement fiers d'être le sponsor de longue date du concours CS Classic au ranch de Corinna Schumacher. Ce partenariat est le fruit d'une relation d'amitié entre la famille du Prof. Dr Reinfried Pohl, le fondateur de Deutsche Vermögensberatung et de Conseil en Patrimoine Suisse, et le couple Schumacher. Depuis 1996 déjà, DVAG sponsorise le septuple champion du monde Formule 1, Michael Schumacher, qui, avec son ambition et son esprit d'équipe, joue un rôle de modèle important pour l'entreprise et ses 37 000 conseillers exerçant leur activité à temps plein ou à temps partiel.

Corinna Schumacher est elle aussi, avec son CS Ranch, un excellent exemple en matière de compétence, d'engagement et d'humanité. Ce sont là des valeurs par lesquelles nous convainquons nos clients – des valeurs que notre société Conseil en Patrimoine Suisse transmet clairement à ses conseillers tout au long de son programme de formation professionnelle. FEI Vet Check

When the horse is older than the rider...

...when owner Francesca Sternberg nominated her Gelding Big Step Moonlight (picture on the left) for the FEI European Championship for Junior Riders, she received a call back from the FEI offices –there would probably be a typing error, the horse would be 10 rather than 20 years old? It was no typing error.

Big Step Moonlight is the oldest horse having ever competed in an FEI championship – and funnily enough it is quite much older than its rider, young George Sternberg-Allen. He was not even born, when Big Step Moonlight was shown in his first competitions. Having just turned 14, George is, by the way, the youngest of all competitors.

The SVAG FEI CS Classic Junior Team: It's Gold for Germany, Silver for Italy, Bronze for Belgium!

>> The Team Competition and the first big moments for the young Reining talents

46 young riders coming from nine European countries had qualified themselves to participate in the FEI European Championships for Junior and Young riders. The teams and the individuals had meticulously prepared themselves for just this one moment. Yesterday it finally happened: they were allowed to put their skills and team spirit to the test.

It was close for the Italian team. Eric Ranieri Volpe and Exxcaliber from Italy were the last competitors in the arena and gave all for their country. The spectators held their breath as the horse stumbled right before the last rundown, but was able to catch itself and finished the very harmonious run with a score of 215,5. In the end it was not enough to defend the title; Italy just missed the golden podium.

The German Team was going strong: Jakob Behringer with Rascal Sensation set the standard high right from the beginning, scoring 216, which turned out to be impossible to beat.

Anna Voss achieved 211 with Mandy Little Magnum and Lena-Marie Maas with Mr Stun Gun rode to a score of 209. The decisive moment occurred when Gina Schumacher in the last section rode Gunners Enterprise to third highest score with a 215. This score saved the Gold Medal for Team Germany, for the first time after six years.

Nimroid Vannietvelt was the Belgium team's best rider. He showed I'm Smart and Wimpy into 4th place scoring a 211, followed by his team colleague Jinke Stevens with Don John Escape BB (210.5). Along with the score from Amber Heidbuchel and Wimps Lil Prize (206), the Belgium Team rode to bronze in the team competition.

The team of the Czech Republic takes 4th place with a final score of 609 with Great Britain coming in 5th.

The final result of the Junior Riders Team Competition:

Gold for Team Germany

Final score 640 points

Silver for Team Italy

Final score 637.5 points

Bronze for Team Belgium

Final score 628 points

DIFFERENT IN PRIVATE BANKING

I have had the pleasure of leading this bank since 1985, and during that time I have worked with many people whom I am proud to call friends. I could not imagine a more loyal, appreciative clientele, and a finer group of colleagues to serve their interests.

At Banque Baring Brothers Sturdza, we know that every client has different needs. We regard it as essential to truly understand individual needs and desires, in order to tailor our services to their specific requirements. Matching those takes skill, experience, and time. This is why we have to restrict the number of our clients and as a consequence, the size of our bank. In doing so we ensure that they are met only by senior professionals with extensive experience.

By focusing on what we do best and avoiding all forms of investment banking, retail banking or any form of commercial lending, we avoid all the risks that very nearly brought a general failure of the international banking system. The bank is entirely devoted to serving private clients.

The personal plays a crucial role in private banking. It is through personal contact that we come to understand the fine details of our clients' individual needs, and to build an environment of openness and trust that are the key to successful and long-lasting relationships.

As the leader of Banque Baring Brothers Sturdza, I am honoured to celebrate the long-term associations that exist with our established clients, and to welcome new clients into our world of trust, understanding and respect.

Young Riders Team: Gold for Italy, Silver for Germany and Bronze for Austria

>> The temperature outside had cooled down; the atmosphere in the arena was boiling!

All 20 competitors in the Young Riders Team Competition were cheered on by the crowd to give their very best. This time though the German Team was not quite good enough for gold, Italy was too strong.

This was to be seen after the nice performance by Wimpys Short Step

BB with Andrea Pedrotti in the saddle (score 218). He took the lead and gold as well as silver went to competitors with the green-white-red flag.

After the last drag Martina Penato with MS Twist Whiz extended Italy's lead at first (score 213) but was then parried by Fabienne Kramer riding Dual Tuck Tari to a score of 214,5, pushing her into fourth place.

The Austrian Anna Lisec with her 10 year old mare Whizable was the next to last competitor, finishing in 5th position with a nice run scoring 212.5. This lifted Team Austria into the bronze medal position.

The CS Ranch and how everything started

It was quite some years ago that Corinna Schumacher was looking for some horses she would feel comfortable for her family to ride on.

Corinna loves animals and has made a name for saving and protecting dogs and horses in Turkey, Brazil and the US, not to mention Germany and Switzerland. When she was riding a Quarter Horse for the first time, she immediately felt those were the right ones for her: „I fell in love with them from the first moment, because they are wonderful, family friendly animals but at the same time great athletes who like to compete.“

Building up the CS Ranch was „a childhood dream come true“, and establishing a Show like the SVAG CS Classic is the proof that Corinna's ambition is nourished by both true passion for Reining and love of the horses.

„Everything here is centered around their needs“, she says. It was from the very beginning though that Corinna wanted to build up more than just a place for horses and riders to feel comfortable at. The wife of the seven time F1 world champion Michael Schumacher shares his attitude of „If I do something, I do it the best possible way“.

In her very own style and meticulous way, Corinna Schumacher is restless in supporting Reining and bringing the sport forward.

Thus, the idyllic CS Ranch which at first has been a refuge for the family, has developed into the most modern Reining facility in Switzerland and a horse centre with the clear focus on professional training and performance.

When asked how she could describe the growing successes, she simply smiles and says: „We love horses“.
