Schweizer Vermögensberatung unterstützt die CS Classic

Liebe Gäste

Als Tochterunternehmen des renommierten Finanzvertriebes Deutsche Vermögensberatung handeln wir ganz nach der Devise „Vermögensaufbau für jeden“. Im Mittelpunkt stehen die Ziele, Wünsche und der persönliche Bedarf unserer Kunden. Aber auch für Menschen und Aktivitäten in der Schweiz machen wir uns stark. So sind wir ganz besonders stolz darauf, treuer Sponsor der CS Classic auf der Ranch von Corinna Schumacher zu sein. Diese Partnerschaft entstand aus der freundschaftlichen Verbindung zwischen der Familie von Prof. Dr. Reinfried Pohl, dem Gründer der Deutschen und der Schweizer Vermögensberatung, und dem Ehepaar Schumacher. Und sie hat bereits Tradition: Seit 1996 sponsert die DVAG den siebenfachen Formel-1-Weltmeister Michael Schumacher, der mit seinem Ehrgeiz und Teamgeist für den Konzern und seine 37.000 haupt- und nebenberuflichen Vermögensberater eine wichtige Vorbildfunktion hat.

Corinna Schumacher ist mit ihrer CS Ranch ebenfalls ein hervorragendes Beispiel für Kompetenz, Engagement und Menschlichkeit. Werte, mit denen auch wir als Schweizer Vermögensberatung überzeugen und die wir in unser mehrstufiges Ausbildungskonzept für Vermögensberater spürbar einfließen lassen. Damit legen wir den Grundstein für eine erfolgreiche Berufskarriere und eine anhaltende Kundenzufriedenheit. Unser Herzstück: die umfassende Allfinanzberatung. Das Konzept der Allfinanzberatung berücksichtigt branchenübergreifend alle finanziellen Belange des Kunden. Als Partner kommen nur erstklassige Produktanbieter in Frage. So bieten wir unseren Kunden nicht nur effiziente Finanzlösungen für heute, sondern auch erstklassige Optionen für die Zukunft an, ganz nach dem Motto „Vermögen planen – Vermögen sichern – Vermögen mehren“.

Ainsi, nous sommes particulièrement fiers d'être le sponsor de longue date du concours CS Classic au ranch de Corinna Schumacher. Ce partenariat est le fruit d'une relation d'amitié entre la famille du Prof. Dr Reinfried Pohl, le fondateur de Deutsche Vermögensberatung et de Conseil en Patrimoine Suisse, et le couple Schumacher. Depuis 1996 déjà, DVAG sponsorise le septuple champion du monde Formule 1, Michael Schumacher, qui, avec son ambition et son esprit d'équipe, joue un rôle de modèle important pour l'entreprise et ses 37 000 conseillers exerçant leur activité à temps plein ou à temps partiel.

GOLD

El Sturdza - "Gold Medal in the Equity-Europe" sector based on three year risk-adjusted performance to 31 December 2014.

Junior Riders: Silver for Eric Ranieri Volpe of Italy, Bronze for Jakob Behringer, Germany

Friday evening at the CS Ranch: The spectators were in high spirits and cheered on the young reining talents and their horses – and they gave all!

All runs were exciting, but it was clear that with Gina Schumacher and Jakob Behringer from Germany as well as Eric Ranieri Volpe from Italy being the last competitors, it would be thrilling until the very end. And this is exactly what happened; these three riders took the medals.

Gina Schumacher had a fabulous run with Gunners Enterprise. With the top score of 219, which was the highest score ridden at this show, Gina deservedly won the gold medal. It was as if both had saved their strength and concentration for exactly this run.

Eric Ranieri Volpe also rode his horse Exxcaliber to a top score of 217.5, which was rewarded with the silver medal.

Once again as in the team competition, Jakob Behringer had a super run with his horse Rascal Sensation. He scored a great 215.5 putting him into the bronze medal position. Lena-Maria Maas and Mr. Stun Gun came in fourth scoring 215, only a ½ point away from the bronze medal.

His joy did not last for long, a few runs later Riccardo had to hand the lead over to his team colleague Enrico Sciulli and The Gunner King who scored a 216. The SVAG CS Classic – where reining feels home

This year, we celebrate a little anniversary – it is 10 times in a row that the Team from CS Ranch is presenting reining at its best. From 2006 – 2008 under a different name, but since 2009 the SVAG CS Classic has built quite some fame.

A show full of passion for horses and sport, yet with that warm and classy touch that defines the fine line to make everybody feel at home immediately, the SVAG CS Classic has settled its reputation amongst the world of equestrian sport in both Europe and the US.

Corinna Schumacher and her team seek for harmony and cooperation in the world of horse lovers, and we regard it as both a compliment and consequence that this year, the CS Ranch is hosting both the SVAG CS Classic and the FEI European Championship for Young and Junior Riders – a combination of events from FEI and NRHA, the two dominant federations.

In a very pleasant und subtle way and over the past years, Corinna has thus helped to achieve what the Reining scene has long aimed for: acceptance amongst the riders together with popularity in a wider audience. The Reining sport is much more known now that it was still some few years ago.

Enhancing the popularity of her sport, however, is not the only aim Corinna is pushing for. She is one key member of a group campaigning for „Clean Slide“, a movement within the Reining sport fighting for clean competitions. As in most competitive areas, some people try to enforce results with practices unfair to their competitors and harmful for their horses. Corinna is one of the leading personalities to denounce those practices, as her love for the sport is based on the love for the horses.

The Team of CS Ranch is aware that Reining still has a long way to go to be wider known, but they share Corinna's attitude by trying to constantly improve their daily work at the Ranch as well as the SVAG CS Classic Show. It is only consequent that experienced show-manager Eric Obrecht, who is renowned for setting up big shows, is overlooking the organisation. His ambition every year again is to top himself – and, frankly, he manages to achieve not only that but also to establish the show in the area. There are more and more non-specialized spectators from the villages around entering our Ranch and the Arena, and they are as welcome as the Reining crowd.

When watching the patterns and how seriously the rider and his horse are fighting to compete well, the spectators understand how much constant and precise work is behind. Or, as Corinna would describe it: „We have a great respect for everybody who gets himself into this. There is a lot of work involved, plus a lot of team-work with your horse. This is not about dominating the animal, this is about being a team. Amongst the Reining riders, everybody has admiration for the efforts of the others, and both for this attitude and the hard training I strongly believe Reining has deserved to be considered a serious competition.“

LADY JANE

In 1966, a certain Mr. Jagger went down on his knees to his sweet Lady Jane and proclaimed himself her servant. However, nobody need throw themselves at the feet of our Lady Jane but of course they are free to do so if they wish.

DIFFERENT IN PRIVATE BANKING

I have had the pleasure of leading this bank since 1985, and during that time I have worked with many people whom I am proud to call friends. I could not imagine a more loyal, appreciative clientele, and a finer group of colleagues to serve their interests.

At Banque Baring Brothers Sturdza, we know that every client has different needs. We regard it as essential to truly understand individual needs and desires, in order to tailor our services to their specific requirements. Matching those takes skill, experience, and time. This is why we have to restrict the number of our clients and as a consequence, the size of our bank. In doing so we ensure that they are met only by senior professionals with extensive experience.

By focusing on what we do best and avoiding all forms of investment banking, retail banking or any form of commercial lending, we avoid all the risks that very nearly brought a general failure of the international banking system. The bank is entirely devoted to serving private clients.

The personal plays a crucial role in private banking. It is through personal contact that we come to understand the fine details of our clients' individual needs, and to build an environment of openness and trust that are the key to successful and long-lasting relationships.

As the leader of Banque Baring Brothers Sturdza, I am honoured to celebrate the long-term associations that exist with our established clients, and to welcome new clients into our world of trust, understanding and respect.

Eric Obrecht, Show Manager CS Ranch

„I am just totally happy about how the last days evolved – not only did Gina win the Individual Gold Medal and the German Team win the Gold medal too, we also received the encouragement of the FEI to apply for next year's senior FEI world championship!

I take it as a reward for all our hard work in the past weeks and months, but also as a confirmation that again this year our event is a great success. But I also take it as a big commitment both for the FEI and our team.“

Sven Friecke
President of the NRHA Switzerland

„I don't know of a show that is better organized. Everyone is unbelievably friendly and really go out of their way to be helpful. The ambience is so unique. Especially hosting the FEI European Championships here in these beautiful surroundings is such a motivation for our young reining talents and a substantial contribution for reining in Switzerland and Europe.“

Bettina De Rham,
FEI Director of Driving, Vaulting and Reining

„I am very happy about the fact that animal welfare is the main aspect at the CS show. Perfect conditions are provided even in this extremely hot weather.

The organization is very good, and the atmosphere relaxed. The high quality performances in the FEI classes are very impressive.“

Reining - A discipline acknowledged by the FEI

Reining is designed to show the athletic ability of ranch-type horses in the confines of a show arena. Contestants are required to run one of 10 approved patterns, divided into seven or eight manoeuvres, including small slow circles, large fast circles, flying lead changes, 360 degree spins and what is generally considered the signature move of the reining horse, the sliding stop.

Reining, which became an FEI discipline in 2000, originated from moves that a cattle horse makes in performing its duties and was first recognised as a sport in 1949 by the American Quarter Horse Association (AQHA).

Competitions take place within an arena where markers are used to enable riders to better follow pattern proportions. To allow top performance and ensure the soundness of competing horses, special footing made of a clay base with a combination of sand and silt as a loose topping is required.

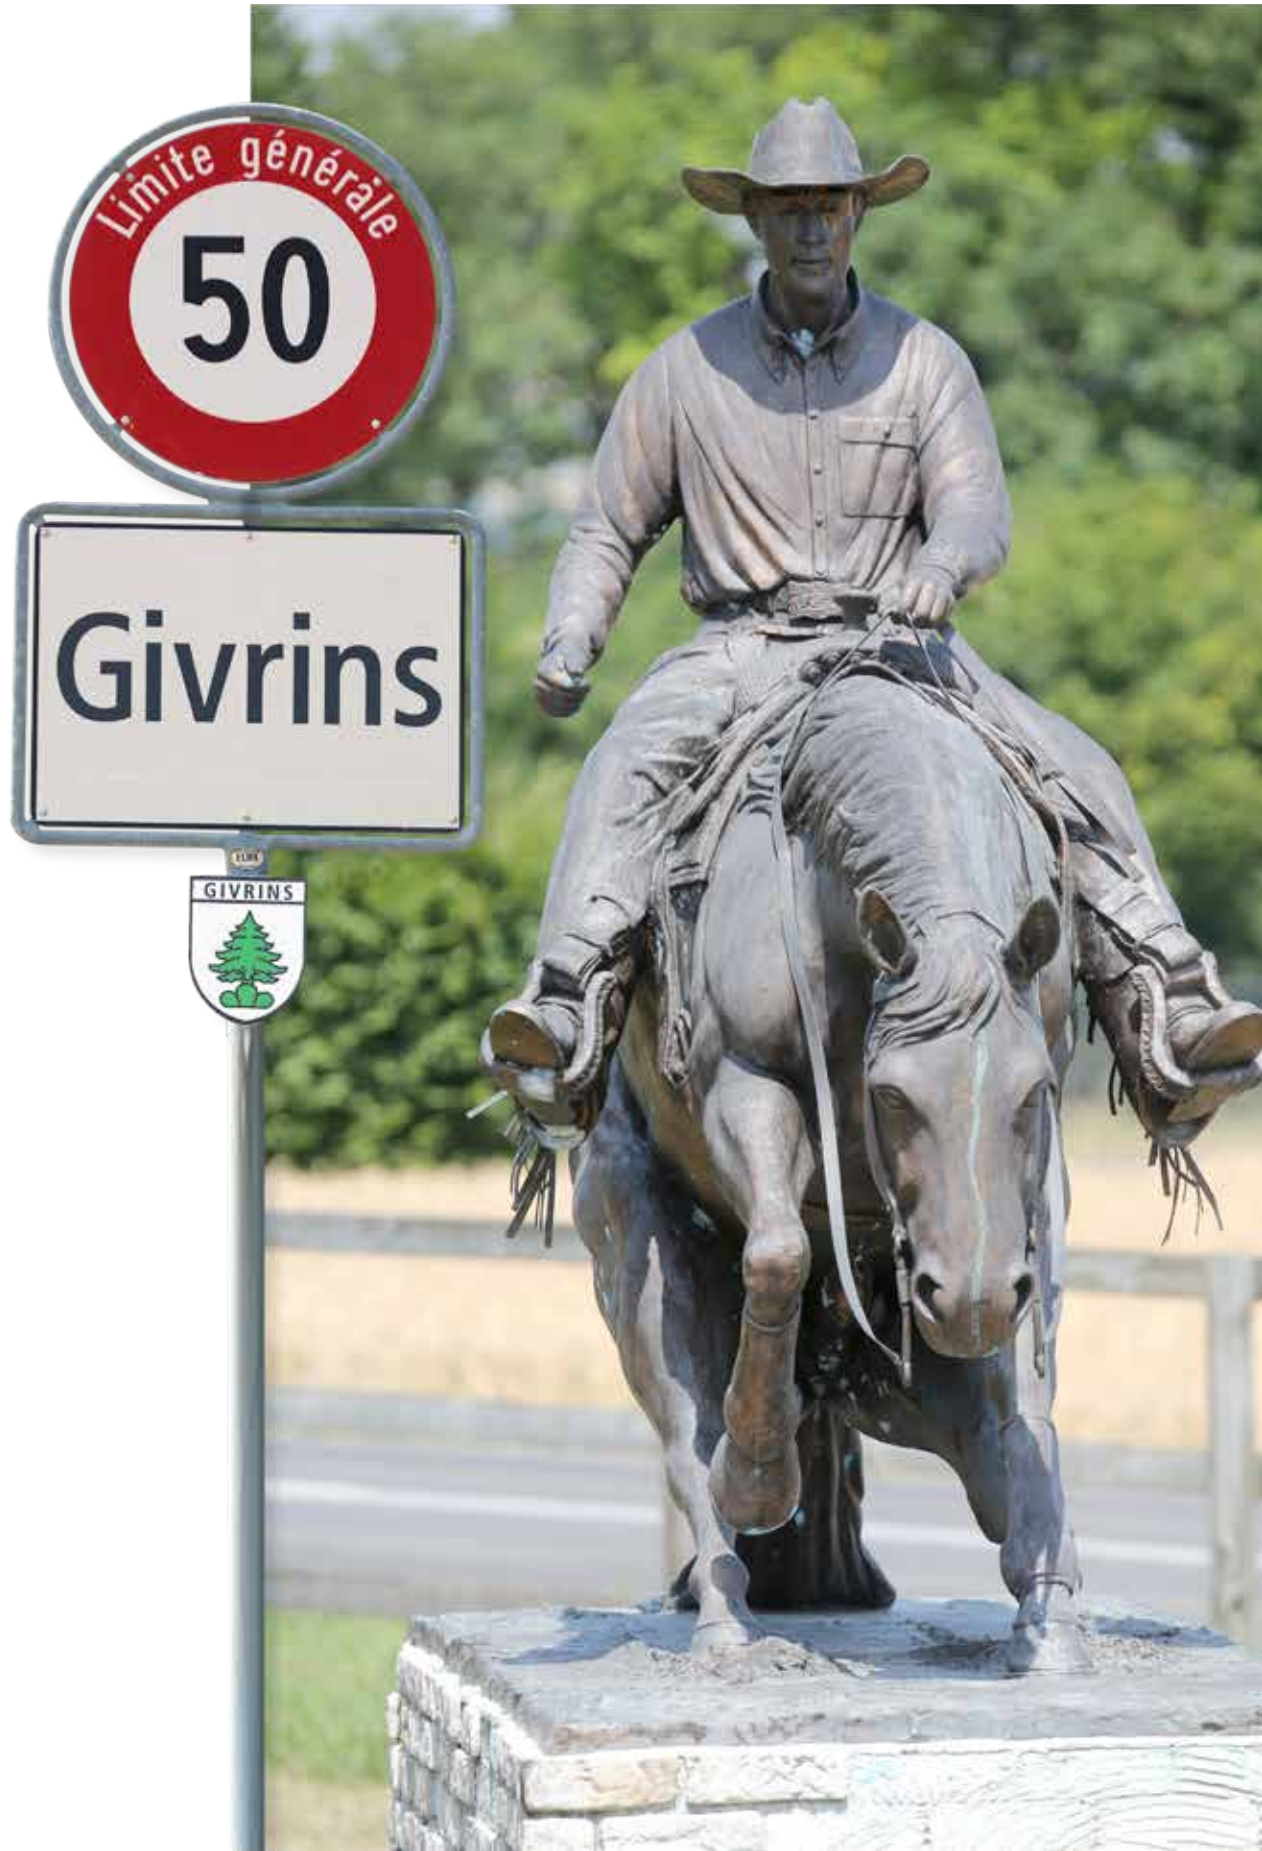

Although part of a sporting lifestyle closely linked to the spirit of the Wild West, Reining is growing in popularity around the world. Despite the seemingly relaxed attitude of both horse and rider and the loose reins typically used, Reining demands high levels of concentration and riding skills with smoothness, finesse, attitude, quickness and authority all being closely watched.

The art of reining: the rider holds the reins in one hand and leads the horse with minimal input from his thighs, shins and weight but also with the voice, which requires sensitivity and intense training. Reining means not only leading a horse but controlling its every movement. Any divergence from the detailed tasks is counted as a mistake and is penalized accordingly. Softness, elegance, posture and velocity, however, are rewarded with advantage points.

The name Reining comes from the English word "reins". Like most classical types of sports, Reining has its roots in the everyday life of people, in this case of American cowboys. To lead big droves through adverse and undeveloped areas, cowboys had to be in the position to change directions with the horse in a flash, to stop abruptly or to race off out of the blue to catch lost cattle.

STOP BYE again in 2016!
