DAS CREDO

Vom Tag der Unternehmensgründung an (1995) bis heute sind die Aktivitäten von BUBEN&ZÖRWEG davon geprägt, mit begeisternden Meisterstücken der Handwerkskunst die Grenzen des technisch und handwerklich Machbaren auszuloten. Für Liebhaber uniquer Spitzenleistungen entwerfen und fertigen wir in kompromissloser Detailarbeit Objekte, die unsere Leidenschaft für innovative Technologien, wegweisendes Design und handwerkliche Perfektion widerspiegeln.

BUBEN&ZÖRWEG

ERSTE ADRESSE FÜR PASSIONIERTER UHRENFREUNDE

In den knapp zwei Jahrzehnten seit der Unternehmensgründung 1995 hat BUBEN&ZÖRWEG eine einzigartige Position erreicht: Das Unternehmen ist erste Adresse bei passionierten Uhrenliebhabern, bei Sammlern und Genießern edler Raritäten.

Das Bekenntnis zur Kompromisslosigkeit im kreativen Prozess wie auch im stilsicheren, kraftvoll mutigen Design, in der Begeisterung für technologische Innovation und der handwerklichen Meisterschaft... das ist der Stoff, aus dem unsere Meisterstücke geschaffen werden. So entsteht Einzigartiges. Unverwechselbares.

Ein erster Meilenstein der Entwicklungen im Hause BUBEN&ZÖRWEG war die elementare Technologie der TIME MOVER®. Dank konsequenter Pionierarbeit konnte die Herausforderung überzeugend gelöst werden, kostbare Automatikuhren werterhaltend und sicher aufzubewahren und zugleich eindrucksvoll zu präsentieren. Die weltweite Marktführerposition in diesem Sektor war nur folgerichtig. Ein Ergebnis der Beschäftigung mit den essenziellen Wünschen und Bedürfnissen anspruchsvollster Uhrenliebhaber, für die BUBEN&ZÖRWEG mit viel Freude einzigartige Meisterstücke kreiert und realisiert.

Mit der FINE TIMEPIECE Collection wurde BUBEN&ZÖRWEG ab 2005 auch zum Anbieter mechanischer Großuhren. Herausragendes Merkmal ist dabei die Spezialisierung auf die faszinierende Komplikation des Tourbillons. Erneut leistete BUBEN&ZÖRWEG auf diesem Gebiet Pionierarbeit. 2007 überraschte das Haus die Fachwelt mit dem Doppeltourbillon und 2009 mit dem Orbit Tourbillon – höchste Uhrmacherkunst, für die das eigene Atelier d'Horlogerie alle Voraussetzungen bietet.

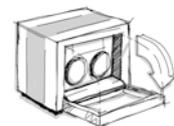

In den OBJECTS OF TIME®, 2006 erstmals präsentiert, verbinden sich die Entwicklungslinien von BUBEN&ZÖRWEG zu faszinierenden, einzigartigen Luxusobjekten. Im Mittelpunkt steht immer das FINE TIMEPIECE, als Markenzeichen für die internationale Luxusmarke. TIME MOVER®, Safe, Weinklimaschrank, Humidor, HiFi-Sound, oft auch nach den Wünschen des Inhabers frei konfigurierbar, immer wieder frappierende Innovationen wie raffinierte Öffnungsmechanismen ... das alles trägt dazu bei, dem Anspruch der OBJECTS OF TIME® gerecht zu werden: Zeit in ihrer schönsten Form zu genießen.

Ab 2008 widmete man sich intensiv dem Thema Sicherheit – ein wichtiges Thema für Menschen, die sich mit erlesenen Werten umgeben. Luxussafes aus dem Hause BUBEN&ZÖRWEG lassen keine sicherheitstechnischen Fragen offen. Sie begeistern durch die souveräne Gestaltung als attraktiver Blickfang im edlen Interieur ... der Besitz kostbarer Dinge muss gesichert, kann gleichzeitig aber eindrucksvoll präsentiert werden.

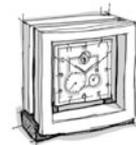

Mehr als alle Worte sagt eine Begegnung mit einem BUBEN&ZÖRWEG Meisterstück. In unseren Boutiquen und Flagship Stores rund um die Welt erleben Sie die Faszination, die Magie unserer Objekte unmittelbar. Herzlich willkommen im Universum von BUBEN&ZÖRWEG!

Complimenti, Enrico! European Champion Junior Rider

Individual Junior Gold Medalist: Enrico Sciulli

17-year-old Enrico Sciulli will be attending his fourth high school year. He has a 4-year-old brother, Federico, who he adores! He has been riding horses ever since he was little and his father, Tiberio, is a team penning judge.

In the team penning shows he met Maurizio Ambrosini, owner of his gold medal partner, Partree 2008. This mare had been ridden until May last year by Sara Ambrosini and Maurizio offered him the horse to ride in the NRHA European Derby last year where they made the level 1 and 2 non pro finals.

Enrico rides at home on his own following Giuseppe Gallotto's advice. He has been riding with Filippo Masi since last June and is also under the guidance of Italian trainer, Francesco Martinotti.

The talented young rider thanks his father Tiberio and his mother Stefania, Maurizio Ambrosini for giving him Partree 2008, Francesco Barbagli for his support and all the Masi family. His experience at the CS Ranch was 'unique and the best place to live this experience'.

Complimenti, Giovanni! European Champion Junior Rider

Individual Young Riders Gold Medalist: Giovanni Masi de Vargas

Giovanni Masi de Vargas, 21 years-old, has been involved with horses all his life. His father, Italian team coach Filippo Masi, is a renowned horse trainer and international NRHA and NRCHA judge. His mother, Paola Donnarini Masi, is also a horse trainer specialized in all-around Quarter Horse competition.

Family owned Alba QH, located near Siena, Italy, is a training and breeding facility dedicated to reining, working cow horse and all-around AQHA competitions. Giovanni's brother, Michele, is also involved in the family business and is currently in the USA learning the art of professional working cow horse.

Giovanni, who turned to open competition last year, has an impressive show record, as a youth, non pro and open competitor. He has collected numerous gold medals in AQHA Youth individual and Team competition, has shown for Team Italy in the AQHA World Cup where he was team champion, and has been on the Italian Junior and Young Riders team in FEI European Reining Championships ever since their inception bringing home team and individual gold medals in four consecutive years!

After unsaddling his gold medalist horse in Givrins, Giovanni is catching a plane to the US where he will be coaching the Italian Team at the AQHA Youth World Cup!

SVAG FEI European Championship Junior: It's Gold for Enrico Sciulli

Once the SVAG FEI European Championship Junior Individual competition came to a close in the beautiful CS Ranch arena, taking the lead and the FEI Gold medal in a field of 18 contestants was Enrico Sciulli and the flashy sorrel mare, Partree 2008, owned by Maurizio Ambrosini.

The two closed their run with a score of 216: „Today my mare went much better than yesterday in the Team competition,” said a smiling Enrico who had made the finals in the NRHA European Level 1 and 2 Non Pro Derby with his mount. „She still needs to mature a little, as far as her personality is concerned, and that is why sometimes she is not as consistent as she should be in the pen.”

17-year-old Sciulli has been riding with Italy's team coach, Filippo Masi, since last month and has also been followed by Italian trainer, Francesco Martinotti, who he would like to extend his thanks to. „Being able to live this adventure has been great, especially here at the CS Ranch which is the perfect location for an international event. I really enjoyed the team spirit both with my team mates and with the other teams here. In the little 'fun time' we had available, we enjoyed ourselves a lot!”

Just as thrilled is the Chair of the Reining Committee of the Italian Equestrian Sports Federation, Roberto Cuoghi: „Once again the results obtained here prove that the Italian reining is going in the right direction. All the riders were just great and I would like to thank the CS Ranch for hosting this wonderful event.”

Silver for Eric Ranieri Volpe of Italy and Bronze for Gina Maria of Germany

It took a run-off to determine who would claim the Silver medal after Gina Maria of Germany, riding Big Time Rooster and Eric Ranieri Volpe of Italy, riding Excaliber, both posted a 212.5. The exhilarating run-off once again resulted in a tie, after they both scored a 212. At this point, the sum of the five scores of the judges determined who would wear the Silver medal around their neck. With a total score of 354, the Italian rider was on the second step of the podium and Gina Maria on the third.

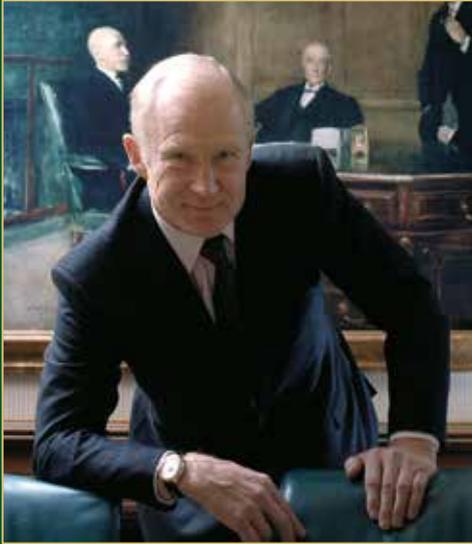

„The first time I went in the pen I was determined to do my best,” said Eric. „The second time I was a lot more relaxed because I knew that in any case I had won a medal! My horse was fantastic and always waited for me, even the second time around.”

Italian Team Coach Filippo Masi, gave credit to his athletes: „Even though the riders had so little time between the team and individual competition, they were fantastic.”

Following the sum of the scores, the Bronze medal went to Germany's Gina Maria and Big Time Rooster, a 14-year-old stallion owned by Andrea Gembe. „Big Time Rooster was great for me today and always listened,” said Gina. „I’ve only been riding him for ten days and I really get along with him. I like him a lot and I am so happy we achieved this great result. He will now take a well deserved rest!”

SVAG FEI European Championship Young Riders: Gold for Giovanni Masi

The FEI competition in Givrins closed with the Individual Young Riders competition which counted 15 horse-rider combinations. Claiming the Gold medal once again was Giovanni Masi De Vargas and his faithful horse, Remins Remedy, a beautiful bay stallion owned by Luca Zeni.

Last to enter the pen, the pair closed their run with a 218.5. „I am so happy for this result! Remins Remedy was incredible. In the first stop I didn't want to push him too much, mainly because I wanted to execute a pattern that just got better and better,“ said Giovanni. „He always listened to me and waited for me. He's a super horse and and I don't know how to thank him. This is our sixth consecutive medal and I am on cloud nine!“

The second step of the podium, and the Silver medal, speaks Italian too! Alessia Simoncini and Top O Spanish took home second place with a 213. „I didn't push my horse too much in the first set of circles, but, in the rest of the pattern he was great and gave me all he had. I really want to thank my trainer Marco Manzi for helping me achieve this result. Without his help this wouldn't have been possible.“

Marina Bottoli and Whizable, owned by Sabine Lisec, conquered the Bronze medal with a score of 210.5. Team Coach, Chuck Klipfel, was quick to praise the horse-rider combination for their efforts. „This is the very first show for Marina and Whizable. Yesterday their performance didn't go that well, but they worked hard, corrected some mistakes and today they earned this well deserved medal! I am very proud of both of them.“

Marina has only been riding this horse for three weeks: „We haven't had much time to get to know each other. Yesterday I wasn't happy with our performance but today I think we did a good job. I would like to thank Sabine Lisec for giving me the chance to ride her horse in this prestigious show.“ Missing the podium by one point is Anna Lisec, also from Austria, riding Golden Jac The Boss owned by Chuck Klipfel and Sabine Lisec.

The SVAG CS Classic

An event just with that special touch

It is now the 9th year that the CS Ranch is hosting the most prestigious Reining show in Switzerland, if not in Europe: the SVAG CS Classic.

A show full of passion for horses and sport, yet with that warm and classy touch that defines the fine line to make everybody feel at home immediately, the SVAG CS Classic has settled its reputation amongst the world of equestrian sport in both Europe and the US.

In a very pleasant und subtle way and over the past years, Corinna has thus helped to achieve what the Reining scene has long aimed for: acceptance amongst the riders together with popularity in a wider audience. The Reining sport is much more known now that it was still some few years ago.

Enhancing the popularity of her sport, however, is not the only aim Corinna is pushing for. She is one key member of a group campaigning for „Clean Slide“, a movement within the Reining sport fighting for clean competitions. As in most competitive areas, some people try to enforce results with practices unfair to their competitors and harmful for their horses.

Corinna is one of the leading personalities to denounce those practices, as her love for the sport is based on the love for the horses.

It is only consequent that experienced show-manager Eric Obrecht, who is renowned for setting up big shows, is managing and overlooking the organisation.

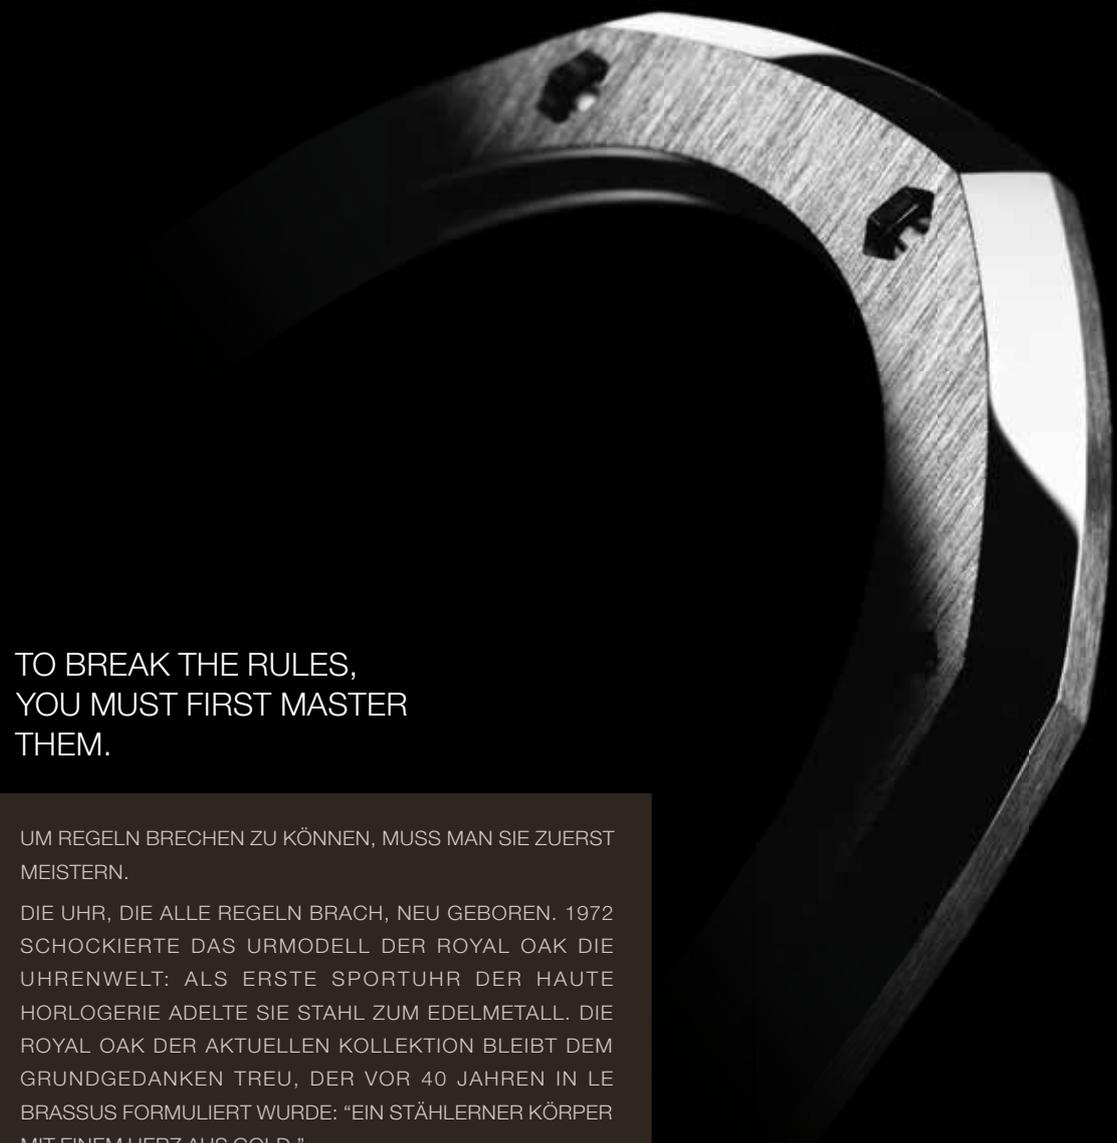

His ambition every year again is to top himself – and, frankly, he manages to achieve not only that but also to establish the show in the area. There are more and more non-specialized spectators from the villages around entering our Ranch and the Arena, and they are as welcome as the Reining crowd.

When watching the patterns and how seriously the rider and his horse are fighting to compete well, the spectators understand how much constant and precise work is behind.

As Corinna would describe it: „We have a great respect for everybody who gets himself into this. There is a lot of work involved, plus a lot of teamwork with your horse. This is not about dominating the animal, this is about being a team. Amongst the Reining riders, everybody admires the efforts of the others, and both for this attitude and the hard training I strongly believe Reining has deserved to be considered a serious competition.“

SVAG CS Classic Rookie Level 1 & 2

13 riders showed in the Rookie Level 1 and with a score of 203, two riders shared the first place: Liliane Fluri of Switzerland riding OW Be Mega Surprise, and German Claudia Simon riding Mr Listos Legacy. Liliane: „My horse’s name says it all! It reflects his personality! He was very good and did all I asked him to do. At home I ride with his previous owner, Daniel Schemuth and with Annika Friesecke. This is our first year and fifth show together. I can only learn from such a horse!”

Claudia Simon smiled: „I started riding Mr Listos Legacy 3 years ago. I bought him in Italy from Pierluigi Fabbri, my trainer is Morey Fisk. Today he felt really good even though I made a mistake in the last stop which brought our score down. I wasn’t concentrated enough and I didn’t go fast enough. Since Mr Listos Legacy is a 7-year-old, we will be taking part in the NRHA European Derby in Manerbio where I hope to do well. I’d like to thank all those that helped me and my family.”

Third place honors in this level went to Mick Betsch who rode RS Esplendidos Olena, owned by Corinna Schumacher, to a score of 202.5.

In the Rookie Level 2 CS Trophy, with a score of 208.5, Fabienne Krämer took the lead with EKM As Lena As Cielo between the reins. „My horse is 7 years old and I’ve always been the one to ride her. We really understand and trust each other. I ride with both Sylvia Rzepka and Shauna Larcombe. I am so happy to have done well in this wonderful arena!”

A half a point behind the leaders was Austrian Eliane Gffeller riding Walla Dundee Whiz followed by Ulrike Frey and her stallion Dreams and Prizes. The latter posted a 207.5.

SVAG CS Classic NRHA Limited Open

Daniel Schmutz, riding his own BH Cielo Dry (Cielo Dry x Its a Broadway Girl x Broadway BH), took the lead and the title in the SVAG CS Classic $500-added NRHA Limited Open after scoring a 211.5.

„I purchased this horse last spring from Julia Schumacher,” says the Swiss trainer. „Grischa Ludwig has always told me that this would be the right horse for me – even though, I must admit, I was a bit skeptical! From the first moment I tried him I knew that that was the horse I was looking for. During the pattern today he was fantastic and I really had fun showing him.

The scores of the other competitors were not that high so I didn't have to push him too much, I just tried to run a clean pattern. Tomorrow afternoon we will be showing in the SVAG CS Classic Open since we are trying to qualify for the upcoming World Equestrian Games in August in the Normandy, France.”

The reserve championship, a half a point behind the winners, went to Morgane Bohu riding Whizdom Shines (Topsail Whiz x Setting Off Sparks x Shining Spark) for owners 7 Heaven Reining Horses. The 10-year-old stallion boasts over $30,000 in NRHA earnings.

Third place went to yet another Swiss rider, Christophe Seiler, who guided Chex Your Guns (Nu Chex To Cash x CR Guns Fancy) to a score of 209 for owner Eliane Gfeller.

SVAG CS Classic $200-added NRHA Limited Non Pro CS Trophy

Closing an intense and exciting day of competition at the CS Ranch was the SVAG CS Classic $200-added NRHA Limited Non Pro CS Trophy which counted 36 entries. Nadia Lattman slid her way to the winners circle in the class with JP Surely Red Dry between the reins. Aboard her mount by past NRHA Non Pro reserve champion, Heza Sure Whiz, and out of Dry Seniorita (by Dry Doc), Lattman scored a 215 for the win.

„I purchased JP Surely Red Dry, who is bred by Jac Point Quarter Horses, from Grischa Ludwig, my trainer” says the Swiss rider. „I have been riding my horse for about a year and am really happy with the way he is going. We now plan on showing him at the Swiss Derby in August. I would really like to thank Alex and Nicole Kubli, Grischa and all the LQH team for all their help!”

Tying for second place, after posting a score of 212, were Swiss Jennifer L. Schleiniger riding Masked Gunman (Gunner x Starmax RM x Grays Starlight) – who boasts close to $23,000 in NRHA life time earnings – and Ulrike Frey of Germany riding Dreams And Prizes (Magnum Chic Dream x Freckles Prize x Colonel Freckles). Frey’s stallion has earned close to $40,000 in NRHA competitions.

Today's Highlights: SVAG CS CLASSIC OPEN and NON PRO Competitions

The 2014 edition of the SVAG CS Classic, which once again proved to be a success on an international level, will come to a close today. Opening the competition on the last day of the show will be the SVAG CS Classic Youth followed by the $20,000-added NRHA approved Non Pro, which will be run class-in-class with the $3,000-added Intermediate Non Pro, and the $30,000-added Open, run class-in-class with the $5,000-added Intermediate Open.

Both the non pro and the open classes offered during the Swiss show held at the CS Ranch, in the past years have always been fundamental in the making of the National Reining Horse Association (NRHA) World Champions.

Last year, Italian Manuel Bonzano and Great Sunburst tied to win the Non Pro class with Austrian Tina Künstner-Mantl and Heza Sure Whiz. Once the show season was over, the non professional rider from Italy and his athletic stallion claimed the NRHA Non Pro World Championship, thanks also to the earnings from the CS Classic Show! This year Bonzano will be back with two mounts competing in the class that counts 42 of the best non professional riders in Europe.

In the SVAG CS Classic Open last year, Canadian Cody Sapergia, based in Austria, slid to the highest step of the podium aboard Jac Point Quarters' Nu Chexomatic. The pair thrilled the crowd in the CS Ranch arena by posting an amazing score of 228.

The two competitors didn't stop there and went on to also thrill the international stage of the sport of Reining by claiming the prestigious NRHA Open World Championship – again, the earnings from the SVAG CS Classic Open contributed immensely to this achievement!

The 2013 NRHA Open World Champions, Cody Sapergia and Nu Chexomatic, will be back to defend their title in the CS show pen this year! Be sure to be in the arena early enough to experience a thrilling fight..

Fighting for the winners circle today are 22 top notch riders, amongst these past NRHA Open Champions and past Derby and Futurity Champions. In other words, only the best!

SVAG CS Classic voices: ...it's Europe calling again!

SVAG CS Classic Show Manager Eric Obrecht was all excited about the news of yesterday:

„The FEI Board confirmed that we would host the SVAG FEI European Reining Championship for Young Riders & Juniors again in 2015! I take it as a confirmation for the hard and dedicated work of our team at CS Ranch. We will definitely try to stage a beautiful event again next year and we already are looking forward to it.“

Morey Fisk, multiple NRHA European Futurity Open champion who will be showing in the $30,000-added Open: „I love this location, it's perfect to host such a great show. It's rider-friendly and so well organized. My compliments to Corinna and all her staff!“

FEI Director of Driving, Vaulting and Reining, Ms Bettina De Rham praised the work done at the FEI championship: „I assisted a high level of competition here in Givrins during these two days. Both the horses and the riders were well prepared. The location is beautiful and the organization was perfect. Everything was well organized in detail, starting from the stalling of the horses to the awards presentations. I truly hope that in the future events such as this one will take place here.“

XCS Horse Blankets, designed to make a difference

Besides training and breeding Reining horses, Corinna since a while has also set up a new business – she designs and produces Horse Blankets where she demands uncompromising comfort and absolute functionality. Her XCS horse blankets combine innovative high-tech material with high-class design and a sophisticated style: XCS, extremely innovative, technical and clever. XCS horse blankets impress through the elegant, comfortable and breed orientated perfect fit.

>> Introducing XCS Horse Blankets

What was originally thought for own use, has turned out to be a sensation in the world of horse lovers. A new introduction which stands for excellence and professionalism, a product range devoted to the well-being of horses. On her CS Ranches in Switzerland and USA Corinna impressively demonstrates that her credo – only the best for a horse – is not only a lip service. „At our ranches we observe daily how horses take profit from good life conditions, especially concerning their performance capability“, she says. „Being a passionate rider, I know what I am talking about. I have often been irritated by blankets which did not keep what they had promised.

I wanted blankets which would transfer sweat to the outside and were really breathable and would regulate body temperature, which had a good fit and would not slip out of place; just really new technical solutions for these wonderful animals.“

XCS offers a new and higher level of quality, materials and the best relationship from form to function – designed and made by committed experts.
