WELCOME TEAMS!

SVAG FEI REINING WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP THE COMPETITION IS FINALLY ABOUT TO START

After many months and years of intense preparation, CS Ranch will stage a memorable event this week – for the first time after 8 years, Europe will see a FEI Reining World Championship. The Summer of Reining on CS Ranch in Givrins, Switzerland, will arrive at its undoubted highlight.

Today at around 13.30h the Opening Ceremony will welcome the participating countries to the SVAG FEI World Reining

Championships. During the next three days Riders from the following 15 nations will be competing for the World Championship Title in the team and individual competition:

Belgium, Germany, Finland, France, Great Britain, Italy, Canada, Morocco, Mexico, Netherlands, Austria, Switzerland, Czech Republic, Sweden and USA.

Immediately following the Opening Ceremony, the Senior Riders Team Competition will bring the atmosphere in the SVAG Arena to high temperature for the first time.

ENJOY THE PERFORMANCES
AND HAVE FUN WATCHING

SUMMER OF REINING

Dr. Matthias Gräber
Chef d'Equipe – Team Germany

What is the biggest adventure for you here?

The most exciting thing is that so many nations came here. I am really happy that Switzerland and the CS Team managed to host a big event like the World Reining Championships in Europe with several riders from abroad, e.g. USA, participating.

Jeff Petska
Chef d'Equipe – Team USA

What do you tell your riders directly before they have to start?

I tell them: „Before we came here, you had a plan, so stick to your plan now.“ This worked so far.

Nicole Kubli
Chef d'Equipe – Team Switzerland

What do you like the most about the facilities at CS Ranch?

I really like the vibe here in Givrins, and it is always very well organized. This time, it is perfectly managed, too. Everything around – the beautiful lake, the weather and the friendly Reining-People – add a lot of fun.

Dr. Selina Schultheiss
Team Coach – Canada

What are your expectations for the next days?

I think we will have a lot of fun. In fact, we have only one rider competing but that should be enough, because we are well prepared I guess.

Alessandro Compagnin
Chef d'Equipe – Mexico

What is the most important thing for you when you are at a show?

The facilities helps a lot: nice quality of the show, proper ground and a good ambience is really important. The CS Ranch is one of the best places I have ever been, so I really enjoy being here. For now, everything looks good and we hope we can keep it like that.

Filippo Masi de Vargas
Chef d'Equipe – Team Italy

Do you know we have a horse Spa here at the CS Ranch?

I knew there is a Spa here, but we didn't use it yet – but it is still a long week... Our horses are always treated well but before this show, they got swimming sessions, special muscle exercises and physio therapy to get them in the best possible shape.

SVAG FEI EUROPEAN REINING CHAMPIONSHIPS THE YOUNG RIDERS AND JUNIORS ARE GEARING UP FOR TOMORROW

No top class sports without young talents; this also applies to the sport of Reining. Europe's best talents will be showing their abilities in the two categories Young & Junior Riders during the SVAG FEI European Reining Championships which start tomorrow.

In the Junior Category teams from the following European Nations will start: Austria, Belgium, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Switzerland, Sweden, Slovakia and Great Britain. In the Young Riders Category the teams come from Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, Germany, Hungary, Italy and Switzerland.

They all are coming to Givrins to compete for the highly coveted titles, to collect valuable experience and of course to have lots of fun together.

THEIR FIRST CLASS
WILL BE THE TEAM

MY REINING STORY – CRISTINA SERRA, ITALY, SHOW SECRETARY

She is the center of riders and horses, she prepares starting lists and accreditations, she knows everything about how a reining show should work – Cristina is working in show offices of big reining shows all over Europe, but the funny thing is that she never was doing reining herself. Actually, to tell the truth, she was sitting on a horse just last Sunday when she had a day of prior to the the SVAG FEI Reining World Championships, „for the second day of my life, on a Paint Horse, at a little place near Mont Blanc“.

The last time she sat on a horse was 22 years ago, and that was about the time when the story about Reining and Cristina started. „At that time, my job was to organizing art exhibitions all over Europe. A friend of mine asked me to help out at a show, knowing that I was experienced in that kind of work. It was not a problem that I did not know about horses, it was really more the organisation of the show.“

Since the reining show was held during her free time, Cristina helped out – and found herself doing it for 3 years. „Then the show managements were starting to call me more and more, so I quit my previous job.“

Thus, since 15 years now, Cristina is a NRHA professional and a FEI steward.

At the CS Ranch, Cristina is working as a show secretary since 7 years – with Eric Obrecht being our show manager – but usually she is obviously working in Italy where she is running the show managements of equally big shows. „I do it because I like this place, and I like the people.“

Cristina is coming from a farmer's family in Italy, so she is not only famous for her work but also for her presents, since her family produces Parmesan Cheese. But most of all she is famous for her attitude, always smiling and making friends, and this is what all of it is about for her:

„This really is a hard work, without any time limits, but it is easy when you work together with a good team. I can only be happy to have Vittorio Gaetano, Francesca Bellingeri and Alex Quinte as colleagues. We are a great team, and we are great friends. We are proud to be called all over Europe together.“
